

Instructions for Borrowing Materials from IWOA Lending Library

IWOA members may borrow any of the items from the IWOA Lending Library. Just request and item(s) by contacting Tom Rosenberger at 1724 12th St NW, Cedar Rapids, IA 52405 (319) 364-3711 tomdr4trees@msn.com The item(s) will be sent to you at no charge, but it is your responsibility to return materials by mail at your expense. The loan period is three weeks.

Items for which there are multiple copies are free for the asking as long as supplies last.

If you have any suggestions for acquisition of new library materials or administration of the library, please contact Tom or any of the IWOA Board of Directors.

IWOA Library

November 2007

Videos:

Iowa's Forests: The Responsibility is Ours, Iowa DNR, 1997, videotape, 2 copies
Examines the ownership and future of Iowa's forests and provides information on the economic value of Iowa's forests.

Iowa Forest and Woodlands, videotape, 1 copy. An overview of the history and present role of Iowa woodlands

The Will with the Visit, USDA Forest Service, 1995, videotape, 18 min, 1 copy, relates the changes in farming and how conservation can improve productivity.

Water Quality and the Working Forest for the Forest Community, Michigan DNR, 1997, videotape, 15 minutes, 1 copy, Introduces the importance of using Forestry Best Management practices to prevent soil and other pollutants from entering our waters.

Empowering Landowners, Alabama Forestry Commission, 1998, videotape, 13 minutes, 1 copy. Explores private forest ownership in the South with emphasis on empowering landowners in management processes

Iowa's History is in its Trees, ISU Extension, 1996, videotape, 10 minutes, 1 copy.
Examines the role of trees and how progress changed the landscape in Iowa.

The Community Forest, videotape, 5 minutes, 1 copy. Significance of trees to communities including environmental aspects and the importance of protecting and expanding tree plantings.

USDA & IDNR Materials

Forest Insect & Disease Leaflet (162)

Fall Colors of Iowa

Forest Landowner's Guide to the Federal Income Tax

Large Trees that Grow Well in Johnson County, IA

1996 Registry of Heritage Taxes in Johnson County, IA

Iowa Wetlands and Riparian Areas Conservation Plan (1999)

Central hardwood notes, USDA Forest Service, 1989, binder, 1 copy. Contains information on managing the multiple resources of the central hardwood forests.

Walnut Notes, USDA Forest Service, 1988, binder, 1 copy. Contains management advice for walnut growers.

Analysis of Iowa's Forest Resources, 1990, USDA Forest Service, 1992, book 2 copies, an inventory of forest land in Iowa to determine its extent, condition, volume of timber, growth and removals

Silvicultural Guidelines for Forest Stands Threatened by the Gypsy Moth

Books:

What Tree is that: A Guide to the More Common Trees found in the Eastern and Central US, National Arbor Day Foundation, pamphlet, 2 copies.

Important forest Trees of the Eastern United States, USDA Forest Service, 1991, book, 14 copies, Identification guide covers common trees of the eastern US with detailed descriptions to each species: shape and arrangement of leaves, height, color bark texture, flowering season, fruit, and uses

Fandex Family Field Guide – Trees

Tree Walk in Oakland Cemetery - Iowa City

Tree Walk in the Longfellow Neighborhood - Iowa City

Peterson's field guide to Eastern Trees, Petrides, George, 1988, covers 455 species with detailed descriptions of each species: shape and arrangement of leaf, height, color, bark texture, flowering season, and fruit

Tree Walk in the North Side – Iowa City

Tree Finder, Watts, May Theilgaard, 1991, book, 1 copy. Manual for identification of trees by their leaves.

Winter Tree Finder, Watts, May Theilgaard, 1970, book 1 copy, Manual for identifying deciduous trees in winter

Posters:

Jewels of the Plains – Blooming Heights

Jewels of the Prairie – Day Prairie

Jewels of the Prairie – Wet Prairie

Jewels of the Prairie – Oak Savanna

Tree Pests of the Midwest

Invasive Species – Plants & Animals Threatening our Natural Resources

DNR Publications & USDA

Vision for Iowa's Forests: 1996-2001 Forest Resources Plan of Action, DNR, book, 6 copies, State forestry action plan that focuses on the benefits, uses, and future of Iowa's trees and forests.

Crop Tree Management in Eastern Hardwoods, USDA, Forest Service, 1993-1994, book, 1 copy, Describes how to manage individual crop trees for timber production, fish and wildlife habitat improvement, aesthetic enhancement, and water-quality maintenance.

Iowa forest Products Directory, Iowa DNR, 1996, book, 1 copy, Lists most of the primary wood producers and the secondary wood processors operation in Iowa.

Cedar Phase II: Eastern Red Cedar Utilization & Marketing – final Addendum, Jones, Carol, 1994, book, 1 copy

Pest Alert – Gypsy Moth

Big Trees of Iowa June 1997 and May 2002

Iowa – Portrait of the Land

Iowa Dept of Natural Resources Program Directory – January 1996

Pest Alert – emerald Ash borer

Coin

Trees – Yearbook of Agriculture – 1949

Trees for Kids – Iowa Invasive Species

A birds' Eye View: A Guide to managing and Protecting Your Land for Neo-tropical Migratory Birds in the Upper Mississippi, R Bluff lands

Reverence for Wood by Eric Sloane

The Living Earth Book of Trees by Gerald Jones